1 CORINTHIANS 3 [NIV]

Brothers and sisters, I could not address you as people who live by the Spirit but as people who are still worldly—mere infants in Christ. ²I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready. ³You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere humans? ⁴For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not mere human beings?

⁵What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe—as the Lord has assigned to each his task. ⁶I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow. ⁷So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. ⁸The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor. ⁹For we are co-workers in God’s service; you are God’s field, God’s building.

¹⁰By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. ¹¹For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, ¹³their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person’s work. ¹⁴If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward. ¹⁵If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved—even though only as one escaping through the flames. ¹⁶Don’t you know that you yourselves are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in your midst? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy that person; for God’s temple is sacred, and you together are that temple.

DAY 1

Book and chapter?

In this lesson, we’re going to discuss Paul's letter to the Corinthian church. Take some time to examine what Paul is saying. See how this applies to you personally and how it can be used to teach us how we “becometogether.” Its important to truly ask yourself hard questions in regards to your faith, devotion and daily commitment to your relationship with Jesus. In doing so, while reading this Chapter ask, “How is God speaking to me?” “Are there ways that I’m carnal?” “Am I an infant in Christ?” or “Have I grown in maturity and now able to digest meat?”

As you read the text, these questions will make more sense to you—or if you’re already familiar with this Chapter then you’ll know exactly why these type of questions are being asked and their importance. While reading, try not to get frustrated or discouraged with the hard questions that are being asked, realize and understand that, this is how we grow in Christ. “As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent” Revelations 3:19 KJV

Be sure to keep this in mind—just as Paul is being called to lead and challenge the church of Corinth, so the Holy Spirit is operating in our lives to challenge us to greater discipline and growth too. God desires us to walk holy and upright before Him, and this is a big emphasis in Chapter 3.

Let’s make the most out of this chapter this week to discover how we as Tribe can grow past any of these issues so we can truly “becometogether” and “Saturate our city and our world with the heart of God”.

REFLECTION

Q. What does this passage speak to you?

Q. Do you feel there is any strife or envy in your heart?

Q: How do you act carnal in an regular day?

Q. Are you planting or watering for the kingdom? How?

DAY 2

CHALLENGE #1

Here's a challenge—go out and share with somebody how this Devo has been going and how it has affected your daily walk.

CHALLENGE #2

Consider putting a post on Facebook and sharing your reflections with all your Facebook buddies.

Q. What has God been speaking to me through this chapter this week?

DAY 3

⁸The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor. ⁹For we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building. ¹⁰By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. ¹¹For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, ¹³their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work. ¹⁴If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward. ¹⁵If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved—even though only as one escaping through the flames.

Q. Which verses stood out to you?

REFLECTION

Q. Do you understand what Paul is writing? In your own words, briefly describe your thoughts.

Q. How do you labor for Christ?

Q. How do you think you could better help Tribe "becometogether" to build the Kingdom of God?

DAY 4

Q. What part of your time in doing the Devos was the most impactful for you?

Q. How have your interactions with your fellow Tribers been in the past few weeks?

Q. In what area of your spiritual walk with Christ do you want to improve upon in the next couple weeks?

DAY 5

¹⁶ Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in your midst? ¹⁷ If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you together are that temple. ¹⁸ Do not deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise by the standards of this age, you should become "fools" so that you may become wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness"; ²⁰ and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."²¹ So then, no more boasting about human leaders! All things are yours, ²² whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, ²³ and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God.

What verses stood out to you?

REFLECTION

Q. What are these verses saying to you?

Q. Would you consider yourself "Holy"?

Q. In what way has this chapter spoken to you so far this week?

DAY 6

Q. Has the Spirit revealed anything to you, that you feel you need to work on personally?

[illegible]

Q. Has this helped increased your spiritual hunger/growth? Do you sense God deepening your sense of purpose in the kingdom?

Q. Going forward, how do you plan to continue maturing in Christ? Watering/ planting for his Kingdom and allowing Christ to dwell in you?

DAY 7-SEE YOU TONIGHT AT TRIBE!

Review all of Chapter 3 today.

Reflect upon your relationship with Christ and your brothers and sisters in Christ.

Take some time to write down any questions or concerns you had as you read this chapter. Reach out to someone tonight and share or discuss any of the thoughts, questions, or victories you came across this week.
